- Installation of Officers Meeting – June 16, 2011
- Regular Meeting – July 7, 2011
- Regular Meeting – July 21, 2011

Heating no corrections or changes they will be filed as printed.

Lon Charlotte Wade, presidents made remarks concerning:

- Presidents and Secretaries Council Meeting, held Wednesday, August 3
- She reported on the International President's theme this year of "I Believe" He is asking Loins to Believe in the concept of Giving Back to the Community.
- International has set projects for the year.
  - August - Youth – We will be working with the Awty Leo Club on a project, when they return back to school.
  - October - Share the Vision – Work with visually impaired people. We will continue to do our eyeglass programs and maybe some other type of vision related project.
  - January – Relieving Hugger – We have in our budget some funds to help needy families at Christmas time.
  - April – Environment – Intentional is seeking to plant one tree per member. We are in contact with Trees for Houston to see if we can participate in tree planting projects.

Lion Treasurer Alice Zumsteg reported:

- Reported the members who have paid their dues and reminded the others to pay as soon as possible. Currently, 14 members have paid their dues, which means that 17 still owe and three of those owe for last January as well as the current dues.

Committee Reports

- Sight Conservation – no report

- Recycling – Eyeglasses and Aluminum – no report
- Recycling – Paper – Turned in $48 from selling the used papers

Old Business:

- The Official Visit of District Governor Rick Reynolds is tentatively scheduled for Thursday, September 15, here at the HEB community room. Cost will be $10 per person and the menu will be similar to what we had at the installation of officers.

New Business:

- Lon Charlotte Wade recommended that we rent a booth at the St. Jerome's Fall Festival, September 24-25, in an effort to make the community aware of the Loons Club and its programs and possibly recruiting new members. The cost of booth is $150 for a single and $300 for a double wide. A motion to participate in the festival was made and seconded. Motion passed.

Announcements

- Bob Dowden Dinner is set for Wednesday, October 5 in the big conference room at Memorial Herman Northwest Hospital. Cost for the meal $15 per person, if the tickets are bought by September 5 they are two for $25. Lion Betty Ezell has the tickets for sale. A drawing for a TV with DVD will be held, tickets are available in advance. Silent and Live Auction items are needed.
